

Dear Shareholder / Investor

We're getting close to the end of 2019, an eventful year for Aftermath Silver. Planning is well underway for our exploration programs at Cachinal and Challcollo and we hope to have an update on progress in the next month or so.

In addition to trading on the TSX:V under the symbol AAG, Aftermath Silver is now also listed on the OTC:QB under the symbol FLMZF. Please note, we have applied to the OTC to change our symbol to something reflective of the company's name. For American investors, Aftermath has also applied for Depository Trust Company (DTC) eligibility. DTC is a subsidiary of the Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation, a U.S. company that manages the electronic clearing and settlement of publicly traded companies.

Quotes for Aftermath Silver's US symbol are available directly at:
